

JHU Research Administrator Day 2022 Agenda

September 28, 2022 | 9:30 AM – 12:00 PM via Zoom

9:30 – 9:40 AM	Opening Remarks	Sue Porterfield - Senior Associate Vice Provost for Research Alex Albinak - Associate Vice Provost for Research Administration Tom Burns - Assistant Dean for Research Affairs
9:40 – 9:45 AM	Thank You, Research Administrators Denis Wirtz, Vice Provost for Research, will take a few minutes to thank the JHU Research Administration Community for all that they do.	Denis Wirtz - Vice Provost for Research
9:45 – 10:00 AM	Enhanced Tuition Benefits Diana Abbott, Director of Benefits and Work Life, will discuss program details and the new online portal and application process for enhanced tuition benefits.	Diana Abbott - Director, Benefits and Work Life
10:00 – 10:20 AM	Attending Graduate School: An Overview of Carey's Business School's Academic Programs, Resources, and Costs Representatives from the Carey Business School will present information about Carey's graduate programs and the new Johns Hopkins Employee Scholarship. Topics covered include academic programs offered, application requirements and deadlines, and tuition costs and financial resources.	Kelly Farmer - Assistant Dean of Recruitment and Admissions, Carey Business School & Andi Overton - Director of Recruitment, Carey Business School
10:20 – 10:40	Research Administration Training Program (RATP) Jim Aumiller will talk about the RATP Program, including the program background, expectations, and benefits.	Jim Aumiller - Senior Associate Dean for Strategic Initiatives
10:40 – 10:50	Break
10:50 – 11:10 AM	Masters Program at Krieger School of Arts and Sciences, Advanced Academic Programs Marianne Woods, Program Director of the Masters of Science Degree in Research Administration will review the curriculum and discuss the benefits of the individualized program of study via a cohort program.	Marianne Woods - Program Director and Faculty, Master of Science Degree in Research Administration, KSAS
11:10 – 11:25 AM	New Career Architecture Join Jenny Winter for an overview of the new Career Architecture project being launched by JHU HR. This multi-year project will develop new career pathways for employees to understand how they can develop their skills to enhance their career growth opportunities. This new career framework will also align with a market-based compensation structure across the University.	Jenny Winter - Director, Compensation
11:25 – 11:40 AM	Career Management Resources at JHU This session will introduce you to a career management model framework as a way for you to assess yourself, research opportunities, make decisions & set goals, and take action. Resources that support career management and professional development at JHU will also be discussed.	Anne Moore - Sr. Organization Effectiveness Consultant, Organization Development and Effectiveness
11:40 – 11:55 AM	My Research Administration Success Story A long-time JHU employee, Anne will discuss her professional journey as well as her insights into the career paths of a research administrator at Johns Hopkins.	Anne Albinak - Director of Research Administration Operations, Whiting School of Engineering
11:55 – 12:00 PM	Closing Remarks	Sue Porterfield, Tom Burns, Alex Albinak